would state which foreign government had requested representation. Mr. Bryan added that this did not constitute recognition of any formal character.

The difficulty arose in connection with the inquiry of the United States about the execution of William S. Henton, a British subject, but today's assurances were said by Mr. Bryan to cover the general subjects and will apply to all cases in the future. The secretary asserted that efforts were still being made to reduce the harshness of the order of expulsion against Spaniards in Mexico.

GREAT SUPERDREADNAUGHTS READY FOR THE GAME

New York, April 15.—The new superdreadnaught New York, one of the largest battleships in the world, was placed in commission today at the Brooklyn navy yard. The ceremony was simple. Captain T. S. Rogers received his orders placing him in command of the new battleship, flags were broken out at the bow and stern and the commission pennant was released, as the ship's band played "The Star Spangled Banner," cheers by the 1,014 officers and men in the crew of the latest addition to the Atlantic fleet were answered by the men on the other ships at the yards and the New York was in commission. If necessary the New York could steam out to sea in twelve hours. Other battleships at the navy yard are the superdreadnaughts Texas and Wyoming, the dreadnaughts North Dakota and Ohio and the armored cruiser Washington. All of these could join the fleet at a few hours' notice.

The New York and the Texas, the latter also just completed, are sister ships. Both will be assigned to the first division of the Atlantic fleet. Each has a displacement of 27,000 tons and a speed of 21 knots an hour. They are fitted with a main battery of ten 14-inch guns and a secondary armament of twenty-one five-inch rifles.

FUNSTON SAYS HIS MEN ARE ON JOB ALWAYS

Houston, Texas, April 15.—The sixty-mile "hike" of about ten thousand men of the Second army division, mobilized at Galveston and Texas City, began today with the departure of the Sixth brigade from Galveston. Regiments will follow each other rapidly until Thursday and practically the entire division will be on foot. General Frederick Funston, commanding the division, said today:

"The hike will not affect the preparations for embarkation of the Second division, as transports are kept in readiness for the men, and at no time will they be out of sight of railway tracks, which could take the command to Galveston in short order. No preliminary orders would be necessary should the troops be needed; still none has been received."

HOBSON ARGUES FOR NATION WIDE PROHIBITION

Does Not Discuss Merits of Question But Simply Rights of People to Vote on the Issue.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Washington, April 15.—Nation wide prohibition was urged before the house judiciary committee today at hearings on the resolution of Representative Hobson of Alabama, providing for a constitutional amendment.

Mr. Hobson opened the argument: "We do not propose," he said, "to argue the merits of this question. Our position is that the question before the country is simply, whatever the committee and congress will give the people of the various states the right to pass on the matter."

Representative Hobson contended that his resolution directed against the sale of liquor for "beverage purposes" would not interfere with state's rights. He said that under the proposed amendment it would be possible to manufacture liquor "for use" but none for "sale." The amendment, he said, would not interfere with the "old drinker drinking" but would prevent the "debauching of youth."

Representative Hobson explained that the revenue laws would be repealed by his amendment, which would permit any one to make whiskey for his own use. He declared that about 55 per cent of the people in the United States were living in prohibition territory.

Representing the national W. C. T. U., the following women appeared: Mrs. Mary Dye Ellis of Washington, Mrs. Anna Gordon of Illinois, Mrs. Frances P. Parks and Mrs. Howard M. Hoge of Virginia. Several women who are W. C. T. U. state presidents also appeared.

STRIKE PICKETS ARE HELD TO GRAND JURY

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] Portsmouth, O., April 15.—Thirty-five persons, arrested yesterday charged with violating a joint injunction against picketing and with violating the mayor's proclamation against congregating in the shoe factory district where a strike is in progress, waived examination before Mayor Frick this morning. They were held to the grand jury and arrangements made for each defendant to sign bonds. A strange crowd, however, and they refused to sign the bonds. Mayor Frick had warned the strikers that they would be re-arrested and sent to jail under a city ordinance if they repeated their alleged acts of disorder. They were given until 2:30 today to sign.

FEAR THE KITE HAS MET WITH DISASTER

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.] St. Johns, N. F., April 15.—Fear that the Kite, the smallest steamer in the sailing fleet, has met with disaster was increased today when the steamer Eagle, in a radio message, reported sighting wreckage consisting of a ship's hatch, a plank and some other 170 miles off here. Owing to stormy weather the Eagle was unable to pick up the wreckage.

It is now believed that this wreckage and that sighted on Saturday by the steamer Bloodhound did not come from the missing steamer Southern Cross, but from the Kite, which carried a crew of 55.

Mondell of Wyoming Pipes Up With Charge That Action Is Result of Personal Resentment.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Washington, April 15.—Representative Mondell of Wyoming, Republican, in the house today assailed the administration's action. He asserted the president was using the Atlantic fleet to "enforce the mandates of his personal prejudice against the man who happens to be at the head of the republic of Mexico."

Senator Works, Republican, of California issued a formal statement: "Hundreds of American citizens have been slaughtered, their wives and daughters outraged and their property destroyed, and the government has not raised its hand for their protection," said he. "But because a few bluejackets from one of our ships, who had much better have been on shipboard, are arrested in a city engaged in civil strife, and Huerta refuses to salute our flag, we are to go to war or back down and make ourselves ridiculous."

Representative Bachelder of Missouri, Republican, of the house foreign affairs committee and chairman of the American delegation to the Interparliamentary Peace Union, said: "I do not regard the Tampico incident as a cause for war. The difference between the five-gun salute which they offered to fire and the twenty-one guns the president insists on would not justify the shedding of the blood of a single American soldier or sailor."

TAFT TAKES PART IN MEMORIAL TO BUTT

Simple But Impressive Ceremonies Mark Dedication of Memorial Bridge at Augusta Today.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Augusta, Ga., April 15.—Simple but impressive exercises attended the dedication here today of the Butt memorial bridge, erected as a tribute to the memory of the late Archibald Wellington Butt who perished in the Titanic disaster on April 4, 1912.

Former President Taft, a delegation of Masons from the Temple Noyes lodge of Washington, of which Major Butt was a member, local Masons and members of the Butt memorial association participated in the services which were held on the handsome new bridge spanning the canal at Fifteenth and Greene streets.

Arrangements had been completed for the dedication to be held yesterday afternoon, but on account of rain, it was postponed until today.

The formal dedication of the bridge was preceded by the laying of a corner stone with Masonic ritualistic ceremony.

Former President Taft spoke feelingly of his former aide as "a southerner through and through."

"I like to think of him," said Mr. Taft, "as the best type of the new south, with its full flavor of the chivalrous and patriotic sentiment of the old south, strengthened by the trials of civil war and its consequences turned into the deepest loyalty to the flag by the Spanish-American war."

"Archibald went to his death in a great disaster that attracted the attention of the world. We don't know the details, but we know that women and children were rescued and he went down with the ship."

"When I heard that many were lost, I knew that Archibald would never return. He would have selected no other death had he been given a choice."

Physicians were in conference during the morning and it was said a formal statement might be issued later. This afternoon the physician announced that Mr. Astor was doing well. They said they believed he would mend quickly provided no complications of a serious nature developed.

New York Girl Pleads Guilty to Has Horrible White Slave Charge

Awakes to Find Man With Bloody Axe Standing Beside Her Bed to Announce Murder of Her Brother.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Huntington, N. Y., April 15.—Miss Mary Sammis, who lives on a Long Island farm, awoke early today to find a man with a bloody axe standing by her bed. In the dim light she recognized Frank Fowler, a young farm hand, who slept in the house.

"I've just killed your brother," he said, "and I am going to kill you, too."

"I've always been kind to you," Frank, pleaded the woman, "and you have no reason for harming me."

"That's right," answered Fowler. "I guess I won't kill you, but I'll go away," and he walked out of the house, leaving the axe behind him.

Miss Sammis went upstairs and found her brother, Frank's body on the bed.

The police believe Fowler is insane. They were searching for him today.

The girl and her brother lived together on the farm, which they owned jointly.

GOVERNOR TURNS FIRST DIRT ON ILLINOIS STATE AID ROAD

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Aurora, Ill., April 15.—Governor Dunne turned the first shovel full of earth today at Moonshart, Ill., seven miles north of Aurora, beginning the improvement of the Aurora-Egna highway, the first state aid road in Illinois. Awaiting the call to labor in the road as the governor dug were fifteen hundred political leaders, bankers, clergymen and mayors of northern Illinois. All were in overalls and jumpers and carried dinner pails. It was the first annual Illinois good roads day. The Aurora-Egna highway from Aurora to Geneva, Ill., is a part of the Coast to Coast Lincoln highway and will be the first stretch of the trail to be paved.

The governor, like other men of note, who worked on the road, was paid as soon as he turned his time. His pay envelope contained a check for one cent. A membership card in the American Federation of Labor, signed by President Gompers also went to the governor and fellow laborers.

J. Parker Whitney Says He Prefers Fine to Long Trial and Court Promptly Soaks Him $2,500.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

San Francisco, April 15.—J. Parker Whitney, a younger son of an old and wealthy California family, pleaded guilty today to the charges preferred against him under the Mann white slave traffic act by Genevieve Hannan of New York, and was fined $2,500 by Judge Dooling in the United States district court.

"I have decided to change my plea to guilty," said Whitney just before entering court, "in order to avoid the disagreeable features of a long trial. Of course, I looked for an acquittal eventually, but it would have come only after a great deal of business. The case has proved a burden to me already. Pleading saved me more trouble."

In imposing sentence, Judge Dooling said:

"The defendant being of some property, I gather that a trifling fine would be no penalty at all. There is a wide range of penalty and in enacting the law congress must have understood that some would be punished by fine, some by imprisonment, and some by both. The defendant would rather pay a fine than go to jail, and I will make it a fine that will be a fine."

Genevieve Hannan, the complainant, has not appeared in the case personally since she testified before the grand jury which returned the indictment. She is understood to be now in Chicago.

COXEY GETS AWAY WITH SECOND ARMY OF THIRTY MEN

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Massillon, O., April 15.—The first organized band of "Generals" Jacob S. Coxey's second army of the commonwealth arrived here today. It was composed of thirty-five men from Coahuila, O., under command of "Colonel" Paul Armstrong. It was estimated that about 100 men are ready to accompany "General" Coxey when the army starts tomorrow on the march to Washington.

It is expected that the army will consist of several hundred men when other "brigades" join the main forces at Beaver Falls, Pa. Later, Misses and some of the wagons from the Coxey stone quarry, as well as the old carriage in which Coxey and his wife rode when the departure of the first commonwealth army was made from here twenty years ago, will be used early in the present march, but will be discarded later.

Oscar S. Strauss Supports the Repeal

Famous New Yorker Declares That a Great Nation Should Not Hesitate to Correct Its Mistakes.

[By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.]

Washington, April 15.—Repeal of the Panama tolls exemption was supported today before the senate by Oscar S. Strauss, former secretary of commerce and labor. He discussed the treaty situation, adding that a strong nation could afford to correct mistakes.

"Let us emphasize that our word is as good as our bond," he said, "and that our bond is not open to technical construction or even to quibble, and that we will fulfill it not only to the letter but in accord with a broad and liberal spirit."

Mr. Strauss contended that an exemption would not profit consumers, but constitute a loss to the government. Former President Roosevelt, he said, believed the exemption of coastwise shipping did not violate treaty obligations, but thought the question should be submitted to arbitration.

No other witnesses were ready and the hearing adjourned until tomorrow, when Seth Low of New York will be heard.

Charles Ragsland, a negro accused of the crime, is in jail at Canon City. No further attempt to lynch Ragsland was made following the outbreak of citizens early yesterday morning which was frustrated by armed guards from the state prison and the Canon City fire department.
